

The Academy of Political Science is a non-partisan, nonprofit organization founded in 1880 to investigate political, social, and economic problems. The prestige and authority of the Academy are such that leading statesmen and scholars of all political persuasions have enrolled as members, participated in its conferences, and contributed to its publications.

The Academy's books have been reprinted by major publishers, translated into other languages, and widely acclaimed for their clarity, objectivity, and depth.

Membership privileges in the Academy include a subscription to the Political Science Quarterly, the oldest and most prestigious journal on politics in the nation. In addition to articles on contemporary and historical aspects of government, politics, and public affairs, each issue of the Political Science Quarterly contains some fifty reviews of current books.

Among forthcoming articles in the Political Science Quarterly:

Planning Foreign Policy: Can It Be Done?

LINCOLN BLOOMFIELD

Origins of the Cold War

GEORGE QUESTER

Presidential Power and White House Lobbying

JOHN F. MANLEY
